FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Do your taxes and help one of Fanwood's volunteer emergency response teams.

For the first time H&R Block, the tax-preparing giant, is helping the Fanwood Community Emergency Response Team (CERT). The company's nationwide program allows participating non-profit organizations like the Fanwood CERT to receive $20 from H&R Block for each new client referred by the non-profit organization while providing a $10 refund on tax preparation services to the client.

Those looking to help the Fanwood CERT should pick up a form at the Fanwood QuickChek on North Avenue or on their website at www.FanwoodCERT.org.

The Fanwood CERT accepts donations through the Fanwood Community Foundation charity, and was established in 2004. The Fanwood CERT will use the funds raised for uniforms, equipment and training materials.
